

Let loose and relax this weekend by following these perfect tips to unwind

Kayakrazy

This summer, make maximum use of Mumbai's coastline. The Rae Sport Academy has introduced kayaking lessons for children and adults alike looking for fun under the sun. There will be a six day beginner's course at H2O, Chowpatty, with ten additional free sessions for practicing and improving skills. The classes are on all weekdays until the monsoon, from 7.30am to 10am, and from 4.30pm to 6pm. Contact: 99200 88873

Giving peace a chance

Find out more about the World Peace March which ended in January this year, spearheaded by World Without Wars And Without Violence (WWW). The organisation is now launching in India with a photo-exhibition on Sunday at Ravindra Natya Mandir. Open from 11am to 8pm, the exhibition will include photographs shot by Bhairavi Sagar encapsulating her experiences during the historical march. Contact: 4016 6035

Fun in geelapan

If the summer heat is getting to you, head to Water Kingdom which is celebrating its 12th anniversary with a mega event in June. On Sunday, an event will be held at 5pm which will feature appearances by dancer Shobha Chopra, singer Shibani Kashyap and Ranvijay of Roadies fame. Contact: 6528 0305 or visit www.waterkingdom.in
